

orooloo

basic settings

for the floorplanner editor

basic settings 1/3

JUST START WITH NUMBER 1 AND KEEP GOING TO NUMBER 21.

1

Check the measurement setting. Choose m or ft at the bottom left of the work field.

If not done yet. Go to Dashboard > Profile > Edit details to set your preference for every project.

2 3

4

5

6

general settings

- show grid
- show symbols
- high resolution
This toggle is absent from many accounts.
- blueprint mode
- hide all above ...

furniture & structural

- show furniture
- furniture color
- show item outline
- structural color
- show fixtures

light settings

- show shadows
- show lights

basic settings 2/3

7

text settings

- show labels
- label scale: 100%
- area label outline
- letterspacing: 7%

8

9

dimension settings

- show dimension lines
- show interior dimensions
Beginners prefer it toggled on.
- horizontal labels
- show short dimension lines
- label scale: 150%
- show auto dimensions
- show outer auto dimensions

10

11

12

3D view settings

- show cut section
- show camera frame
- cutaway walls
- show floors below
- show ceilings
- show shadows

13

Top left corner.

First floor

First floor

+ Add Floor

14

First floor

16

Floor Settings

First floor

floor height: 260 cm

15

First floor

floor height: 8' 6"

basic settings 3/3

First floor

design name
First design

active design

1 Design >

First floor

Build

- Draw Room 18 >
- Draw Wall >
- Draw Surface >
- Place Doors >
- Place Windows >
- Place Structural >
- Background Settings >

metric

Room

thickness 19 30 cm

wall height 260 cm

raise from floor 0 cm

when ready

imperial

Room

thickness 19 11 1/2"

wall height 8' 6"

raise from floor 0